Do you, or someone you know, have difficulty using a standard telephone? The Maryland Accessible Telecommunications (MAT) program may offer the solution you're looking for. Maryland Relay is a free public service that allows people, unable to use a standard telephone, to both make and receive calls. Maryland Accessible Telecommunications (MAT) distributes State provided devices to qualified applicants. Apply today to see if you qualify for state-issued equipment! Maryland Relay is here to keep you connected with assistive calling solutions designed to empower you.

Jenny Curran is the newest member of the TAM team, having recently joined as the Captioned Telephone outreach coordinator. She has been traveling all around the state to spread the word about Maryland Relay's Captioned Telephone Service. Jenny is a graduate of Towson University with a degree in Deaf Studies. Jenny continues to get excited about getting out and visiting different events and businesses around Maryland. She is passionate about her career because it allows her to connect people to the resources and services they need to live happily and independently.
