Guest Speaker: Erin Swann, Assistive Technology Specialist
Maryland Technology Assistance Program (MDTAP)

In addition to hearing aids and cochlear implants for adults with hearing disabilities and deafness, there are many new assistive listening devices constantly being developed. Join us as Erin Swann explains and demonstrates how these helpful devices can make us more comfortable and safer at work, at home, and while spending time with friends and family. Come see the devices for yourself! Ask questions!

Erin Swann has been working in the assistive technology field since 2005, and joined MDTAP in 2016. She earned a Masters Degree in Biomedical/ Rehabilitation Engineering, and holds ATP Certification.
