- find out how to improve communication with family members and friends
- strengthen bonds with family, friends, and loved ones
- suggestions for better conversation every day
- effective technique rules to help ourselves and others improve communication
- how to introduce this issue to & with family members and friends

Margaret Widner-Kolberg has been dealing with personal deafness for over 30 years. She considers herself hard-of-hearing, and hears with the help of cochlear implants. Her warm personality, vast fund of knowledge and experience, and deep desire to help others will make this an outstanding evening for all who attend.

Be sure to check our chapter website at www.hearinglossbaltimore.org for additional information.
